

FSF writing workshop Friday 9th June Writing together

In groups of two/three chose one of the following phrases

'We are data carriers. Our data travels with us. Works for us and against us. Defines "us", "knows"us'...

'Your data, my data ...'

'The centre cannot hold ...'

'Lorde forgive us ...'

'Users get used...'

'We are everywhere entangled...'

'Archives hold memories and...'

'I forget when I first decoded....'

'The experience reflected...'

'My feminist praxis ....'

Owning our domains is...

'What do we name and categorise...' (A. Gumbs)

'Sometimes I strain to see the invisible...' (A. Gumbs)

'Our encounter with AI – our self-created nemesis, our last invention...'
(Jeanette Winterson)

In your group of two create write together on your chosen title utilising either one of the following 2 methods:

Option 1: you both write alone for 8 mins and then you swap over taking each other writing and finish it in the remaining 8 mins

Option 2: you both write together in real time, deciding together which direction to go in 16 mins to produce one text.
