

Roibí O'Rua

Roibí O'Rua is a multimedia artist and self-proclaimed popstar based in Waterford City. A graduate of Limerick School of Art and Design, she has exhibited work in the 39th EVA International and the 2021 RDS Visual Arts Awards, and has completed a digital commission as part of Project Arts Centre's SHORT CUTS programme in collaboration with RTÉ Culture in 2022.

Hailing from a background of Queer Club Culture, paired with a love for all things Cyber, she creates work that explores Queer Identity as it relates to and evolves with Cyberspace.

Her work takes the form of Music, 3D Modeling, Animation and Illustration, with an emphasis on digital and accessible methodologies.
